ORDER:

In pursuance of the orders issued in the reference 1st and 2nd read above, The Ministry of Panchayati Raj, GOI (MoPR) has rolled out the existing RGSA scheme and launched Revamped RGSA without changing the funding pattern with effect from FY 2022-23 to 2025-26. Under the RGSA Annual Action Plan for 2024-25 approved in July, 2024 by Seventh Central Empowered Committee (CEC) under the Chairmanship of Secretary, MoPR, construction of 200 new Gram Panchayat buildings have been approved for Gram Panchayats that currently do not have their own buildings in PESA and Aspirational Districts in the State of Andhra Pradesh. Each approved building with funding of Rs. 20 lakhs per unit.

2. The MoPR has been providing support to the States/UTs under the scheme of RGSA mainly for Capacity Building & Training to strengthen Panchayats for effective grassroots level governance and service delivery. Support is also provided under the scheme on limited scale for Panchayat Infrastructure (Construction of Gram Panchayat Bhawan along with CSC Co-location in GP Bhawan and Computers for GP Bhawan). Accordingly, during the 8th CEC meeting, the State of Andhra Pradesh was given additional approval for 417 Gram Panchayat Bhawans (buildings) along with CSC Co-location and 1,422 Computers for GP Bhawans.

3. The sanction and financial details of the approval given by eighth CEC are as follows:

(a) The details of number of Gram Panchayats having population of more than 3,000 but not having their own GP Bhawans in the State of Andhra Pradesh are as follows:

Sl. No.	State	GP Bhawans Required for Saturation	No. of GP Bhawans sanctioned for GPs having population more than 3,000	Amount @ Rs.25 lakh (Rs.20 lakh for GPB & Rs.5 lakh CSC Co-location)
1	Andhra Pradesh	1,675	417	104.25 crores

State share component in the ratio 60:40 for Center and State respectively: Rs. 41.70 crore as State share for GP buildings with CSC co-location

(b) The number of computers to saturate the requirement of computers in the Gram Panchayats having their own buildings in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Sl. No.	State	Requirement of Computers for which GP Bhawans are available	Amount @ Rs.0.78 lakh per unit
1	Andhra Pradesh	1,422	11.09 crores

4. In the reference 3rd read above, the Director. PR&RD Dept. has requested to provide written confirmation provisioning State share of Rs.46.137 crore (Rs.41.70 crore for GP buildings with CSC co-location Rs 4.437 crore for computers to the GPs in the in the State Budget against these additionally approved GP Bhawans and computers. Subsequently, the State has to submit supplementary Annual Action Plan of 2024-25 with the approval of State Empowered Committee (SEC) for revision of budget summary to MoPR.

5. Accordingly, Government hereby agreed to provide State share of Rs.46.137 crore (Rs.41.70 crore for GP buildings with CSC co-location + Rs.4.437 crore for construction of additional 417 Gram Panchayat Bhawans (buildings) along with Common Service Centre (CSC) Co-location and 1,422 Computers for GP Bhawans under Revamped Rashtriya Gram Swaraj Abhiyan (RGSA) Scheme Annual Action Plan for Financial Year (FY) 2024-25 in view of the decision of 8th CEC meeting of RGSA.

6. The Director, Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department, Andhra Pradesh, Tadepali, Guntur Dist. shall take further necessary action duly following the guidelines of GoI in the reference 1st and 2nd read above and furnish the U.C. to Govt.

7. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance Department vide Finance U.O.No.2684808/FINO1-FMU0PC(PRRD)/6/2025-FMU-PRRDRWS.
